Dedication

MRS. CRAWFORD

MISS HURDLE

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-four, have grateful hearts toward our parents, teachers and friends. We believe our last two years of school have been the most trying ones, hard for our teachers and ourselves. We believe God looked down on us with a smiling face when he gave us two such wonderful teachers for these years. Therefore, we pay tribute to Mrs. William Crawford who made our path easier to follow in our Junior year. We thank you, Mrs. Crawford.

Our Senior year has been one full of hard work and fun. For the success of all our projects we pay tribute to one of the hardest workers the teaching vocation has ever had. Thank you Miss Louisianna Queen Hurdle.

We Seniors love you both.

Senior History

As time rolls on its ceaseless course, new seasons come and go. Tonight we are on the eve of graduation. With this event before us, our thoughts turn back to the early fall of 1942 when we stepped in to the first grade to begin our school career under the guiding hand of Mrs. Harvey Dickerson. There was such a large class Mrs. Dickerson couldn't handle all of us so Miss Dora Collier, now Mrs. Flemming, gained part of us as her flock. From then on we were separated all through our grammar-school life. They turned us over in the second year to Miss Campbell and Mrs. Delmon Rowe. Mrs. Julian Peacock, Mrs. Clifton Lewis, Mrs. Russel Gurley, Miss Mary Pipkin, and Mrs. Talton Jones steered our course for the next five years. Mrs. John Thompson carried us successfully through our eighth grade and so graciously prepared us for high school.

In the fall of 1950 we entered high school with a great future ahead of us. No one knows how green we felt but certainly how green we looked. We were confused by the changing classes, clanging bells, and endless jeers from the Sophomores. With the help of our home-room teacher, Mr. A. C. Holloman, we finally settled down to work.

After a short summer of fun and hard work, we came back as 'Sophomores' to more hard work. Mr. W. P. Hollowell became our new principal taking the place of Mr. W. H. Bryson. Mrs. Ira Montague was our teacher and Mr. H. C. Banks took her place near Easter when she stopped teaching.

Starting our Junior year, we had many wonderful events to look forward to. We gave our Junior play, "A Pair of County Kids," on December 5, 1953. After much planning and with the help of Mrs. William Crawford, our sponsor, we gave the Seniors a banquet on April 3, 1953, in the high school gym. Everyone really had a wonderful time. We well remember Career Day which was for all Juniors in the county. The marshals were: Barbara Ann Davis, chief; Shelba Jean Bunn, Helen Kate Stuckey, Rosella Jones, and Louvene Hall.

We began our Senior year as full-pledged Seniors being delighted that Miss Louisianna Hurdle was our sponsor. There was much excitement when we received our rings after the first grading period. On November 12, 1953, a cast of happy and nervous actors presented the Senior play, "Brother Goose." We are very grateful to Mrs. Molton Gurley for directing our play. A happy bus of Seniors left for Washington, D. C., on November 22. We all had a wonderful time and we hope our chaperones, Miss Hurdle and Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford, had a nice time along with our fun. We all have enjoyed working on our annual even though it was a lot of hard work. Words can't express how much we appreciate the help Miss Hurdle gave to make our annual a success.

There have been discouraging times during our twelve years, but we wouldn't trade them for anything. We will miss everyone, but we will never forget our friends and the wonderful times while here at Nahunta High School. We want to say thank you to all our teachers, our principal, friends, and last, but not least, our parents.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1954, in twenty-four individual and distinct parts, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory, and almost super-human understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament.

To the faculty, we bequeath our bright remarks and wittiness and our high intelligence as a standard by which to judge the future classes.
To the freshmen, we leave our superiority complex.
To the sophomores, we bequeath our ability to make passing grades.
To the juniors, we bequeath our ability to earn money for the tough senior year.
Mildred bequeaths her ability to catch boyfriends to Marie Winders so she might find one she can get along with.
Josey Langley leaves her shorthand ability to Jonathan Hooks.
Helen leaves her loudness to Dorothy Ivey so she can read her French and shorthand louder.
Louvene leaves her stubborn ways to Dorothy Pate so her love affair might be a success.
Billy and Bayron will their ability to date other boys' sweethearts to Marion Talton and Wreb Hawley.
Peggy wills her ability to tend to her own business to all curious people.
James and Rand will their ability to chew tobacco and smoke cigars at the same time to Gordon Wells and Joseph Rollins.
Charles wills his quietness and ability to make good conduct grades to Dorothy Ivey so she can play basketball next year.
Marvin leaves his way with the women and his ability to please the teachers to Buster Lewis so he'll have a girlfriend and also be able to play basketball during high school.
Shelba leaves her 4-H achievements to Inez Sasser and Judy Stuckey.
Peggy Crawford leaves her flirtatious smiles and her way of holding on to more than one boyfriend to Annette Sasser.
Christine Holland leaves her ability to express her own opinion to Christine Pittman.
John Pate leaves his ability to get along with his girlfriend to Jonathan Hooks.
Bobby leaves his ability to skip school with his Freshman girlfriend to Jimmy Bunn.
E. C. leaves his ability to steal other boys' girlfriends to Vernon Sullivan.
Rosella leaves her ability for mathematics to anyone.
J. B. leaves his ability to slip in the lunchroom to all the Senior boys next year, without getting caught.
Barbara leaves her ability to steal other girls' boyfriends to Margaret Morris.
Maud wishes to will all of her Juniors except one to Beulah Langley.
Carol Aycock leaves her short hair style to Jencie Whaley.
Evelyn Radford leaves her quick temper to Donna D. Morris.
Signed, published and declared by the above named as their last will and testament.

Class Prophecy

Looking into the future lives of the Senior Class of '54, I see that they have taken many different paths of life to tread upon. Let's have a look at them.

Billy Holland is entertaining a group of people as he has always done.

Peggy Lewis has finished her schooling at A.C. She will soon be settling down with that good looking State College boy.

John Pate is at home helping his father farm. He is still single.

Shelba Jean has finished her schooling at Bob Jones University. She's still looking for that one admired boy friend.

Marvin has finished his schooling at E.C.C. and is ready to serve his hitch in the army, although he's still thinking of that certain one.

Barbara Davis is a newly-wed school teacher who graduated from E.C.

Since Gene is out of the army, Evelyn and he have settled down together to live their lives as one.

I see that E.C. Gurley and Bobby Wall make two good looking soldiers. They have it made because they are stationed at Seymour Johnson Field.

Carol has finished her schooling at Crumplers and has an office job. She is waiting for Harold to finish his school so that they can marry.

Louvene is a secretary in a large office where she is a good one.

Bayron is on the patrol staff at Goldsboro. I am sure he enjoys it.

Christine is making a wonderful housewife for J.T.

Rand and James still think as much of each other as they ever have. They both have a truck-driving job.

Peggy Crawford is an office worker at the Du Pont plant in Kinston. She hasn't married yet.

Charles Holland is now a teacher in a large school. He is a good one.

Josey and Maude are making good in the Du Pont plant in Kinston. They are still holding to their old boy friends.

Listen! Extra! Extra! All about the big battle. Hero of the hour, General Lloyd Rollins, Jr.

Mildred has a job in Durham where she has caught a boy friend.

J.B. is farming. Yes, he is married to that certain old girl friend.

I see Rosella entering a large hotel in New York City. She's now making a tour of the United States.

Helen is a private secretary to a young boss of a large firm. She is the perfect secretary and tells herself that she's not in love with her boss, but she thinks there's no one nicer.

Mr. President brave and wise official of the class of '54, my duty is at an end, and the future is hereafter to thee and thy classmates an open book. May each of you follow faithfully the path I have marked out for your footsteps and may your lives be a glorious success.

Senior Class Poem

We are the class of nineteen fifty four;
Our high school days will be no more.
Into a new life now we gaze
As we all go our separate ways
Never to meet again as one,
To laugh and joke and share our fun.
The long awaited day has come . . . at last,
The thing we've striven for in the past.
Tho' we're leaving with our hearts full of sorrow,
We'll make our place in the world of tomorrow.
Although the time has come to part,
We'll cherish these years within our hearts.
Yes, we'll treasure the mem'ries of Nahunta High,
Ever striving upward as the years go by.

By: Marvin Ivey

Senior Class Song

Graduation day is drawing nigh
For the seniors of Nahunta High;
From our hearts there comes much joy
From each classmate girl and boy.
Happiness remains for the last today
In future years our hearts will say
We love you much Nahunta High;
For happy mem'ries here's good-bye.

Forgive us for things we've done
Thank you for each vict'ry won;
But as fortune calls everyone
Each heart is filled with memories alone.
To each of our teachers so dear
Who have helped us through each year
As we leave each of you this day;
Your guidance sends us on our way.
